Last Sunday fight fans in Tia Juana were given the treat of their lives when, in a terrific 15-round go between Sam Kaspar of Torrance and Jap Ramiro of Mexicali, Kaspar triumphed by knocking the Mexican for a goal. The scrap proved a humdinger from the first tap of the gong until in the fourteenth round Sam saw his game opponent counted out at his feet. Honors were about even up to the sixth round, and then for three consecutive frames Sam took the beating of his life. The six, seventh, and eighth rounds belonged to Ramiro by a wide margin. Kaspar was knocked down nine times in the seventh, and the bell saved him from a complete knockout. At the beginning of the ninth he rallied and trounced the Mexican unmercifully, and in the first fourteen seconds of the fourteenth round he won by a straight knockout over the Mexican. Kaspar's body is still a mass of black and blue marks.

American Legion Auxiliary Dance

The American Legion Auxiliary announces that on December 9, Saturday evening, they will have a dance in American Legion Hall. A pleasant surprise is promised for this dance; in fact, something pleasant is going to be in store for each of the monthly Auxiliary dances.

The same excellent music that was enjoyed at the hallowe'en mask ball will furnish the music on the 9th. The price is altered, and will be 75c a couple instead of 25c for ladies. No tickets will be printed or put in circulation, but it is hoped that the same cooperation with the American Legion Auxiliary that has always been shown, by the people of Torrance, by attending their dances, will be shown on this occasion.

SEVENTEEN SPEEDSTERS

With five violators of traffic ordinances fined an aggregate of fifty dollars last Friday and twelve more to appear on similar charges today, Police Judge King and Marshal Anderson are "the busy boys" these days.

Notwithstanding the fact that a stiff sentence awaits them if caught exceeding the speed limit, Marshal Anderson says it seems to be an irresistible impulse on the part of local motorists to "step on 'er" whenever they strike a smooth stretch of asphalt such as Arlington street.

Wednesday Dead Line On Copy

Two of the principal aims of any newspaper are to get all the news and to deliver the paper promptly to its subscribers.

The public is the judge whether or not we accomplish the first.

The accomplishment of the second aim is dependent on the cooperation of the readers and advertisers who must, if they wish to receive their paper on time, send in either reading matter or advertising copy not later than eight o'clock Wednesday night of each week.
